OUR HOUSEHOLD EMERGENCY PLAN

READY WHEN IT MATTERS · EUROPEAN EDITION · FREE PRINTABLE

Agree these answers together, so that everyone knows what to do even when you cannot talk to each other. Keep the plan simple enough for the youngest member of the household to follow, and keep a copy in each grab bag.

Warnings and alerts

- ☐ Emergency alerts are switched on on every phone
- ☐ We know the name of our phone alert system and when sirens are tested here
- ☐ Signed up for flood or weather warnings, if we are at risk
- ☐ Registered with our energy and water companies for priority help, if anyone needs it
- ☐ We know our public radio station and frequency
- ☐ We have a battery or wind-up radio

Meeting places

Near home (for example, a neighbour's front gate)

In our area (for example, a library or place of worship)

Outside our area

Family contact far away

If we are apart

If phones work, we first call

If calls fail, we text

We check in at (morning)

We check in at (evening)

We leave a note at

Our code word for "I am safe"

Children

Who collects the children from school or nursery

If they cannot, who will

What the children should do if no one comes

Our home

Main water valve is located

Gas shut-off is located

Fuse box is located

Emergency supplies and grab bags are kept

Spare keys are with

If we must leave home

First place we could stay, and phone

Second place we could stay, and phone

Our route out of the area

Who takes the pets

© 2026 21R6 Editions. Free to print for personal use, not for sale.